

Approximately 50% of lupus patients have renal disease which can lead to irreversible renal damage, renal failure and the need for dialysis, ...

read more