The "at risk" group are people over the age of 65, and those under 65 who have chronic illnesses such as heart disease, asthma, chronic renal and liver ...

read more