Six Chinese suspects went on trial yesterday accused of making and selling the industrial chemical at the centre of a tainted milk scandal blamed for killing six children and making nearly 300,000 others seriously ill.

read more