(AP) — A San Francisco transplant surgeon who was alleged to have hastened the death of a man so his organs could be harvested was acquitted Thursday of ...

read more